The Informal Sector in Ecuador

Artisans, Entrepreneurs and Precarious Family Firms

Alan Middleton

Series: Routledge Studies in Latin American Development

The research for this book was financed by a Leverhulme Trust Emeritus Fellowship

This book looks back over the last forty years of change and development in Ecuador, showing how macro level changes have impacted families and workplaces on the local level. Using a combination of micro and macro analyses, this book demonstrates how the social relations of the sector are connected to the wider social, economic and political systems in which they operate. This remarkable longitudinal study will be of considerable interest to researchers of development studies, economics, sociology, anthropology, geography and Latin American Studies.
